Additional Information:

Lee Roy Kirk

Lee Roy Kirk is the fourth and last son of William B. and Amanda Ann (Hudson) Kirk, and a grandson of Henry and Harriet Kirk. He was born on February 6, 1888, according to the family bible which is in the possesion of Lee Roy's daughter, Mrs. Ralph Dowdy. A copy of the page listing his birthdate is included in this chapter. According to his obituary, Lee Roy Kirk was born in Benton County, Mississippi.

Lee Roy's father, William B. Kirk, had died before he was born in February, 1888, and his mother married to Zenos E. Vernor on December 19, 1888. A copy of this marriage license is included in the chapter regarding William and Amanda Kirk.

The 1890 census burned so the next available census was the one for 1900. In the 1900 census of Union County, Mississippi, in the home of his mother, Amanda Ann (Hudson) (Kirk) and his step-father, Zenas E Vernor, we first find Lee. At this time, those living as a family were Amanda 39, Zenas E Vernor 61, Wallace Carroll Kirk 14, Lee Roy Kirk 11, Clyde Vernor 10, Edmund Vernor 6, Annie Kate Vernor 4, Lucille Vernor 3, and Howard Vernor 3 months.

Lee's two older brothers, Henry Benton Kirk and William Ernest Kirk, had been given to their uncles to raise and work when Amanda married Zenas Vernor even though they were neither one over seven years old.

On December 4, 1907, Lee Roy Kirk married Julia E. Robbins in Union County, Mississippi. A copy of this marriage license is shown in this chapter. Julia E Robbins was born on November 25, 1887.

In the census of 1910 for Pontotoc County, Mississippi, T-624, Roll 756, Sheet 13, District 96, Beat 2 taken on April 30, 1910, by Larkin Conlee, it list Lee R Kirk age 22, Julia age 23 and Buford age 1 year and 3 months. The Soundex listed Julia as "Cald" but in double checking the census records, it is definitely Julia. He was listed as a farmer who was renting his land and stated they had been married three years.

In the census of 1920, Family 187, it list L. R. Kirk age 33, Julia age 33, Buford R age 10, Ethel age 9, Earl age 7, Etoil age 5, Carl age 3 and Flodell age 1.

Lee was a share cropper in the Pinedale Community in southwestern Union County, Mississippi. He raised a very large family on his vegetables, hogs, cows and chickens.

Odee, the seventh child of Lee Roy and Julia (Robbins) Kirk states, "He (Lee Roy) was a lover of gospel singing and sent all the children that were interested to singing school in the summer. He also liked sports and wanted the children to excel in basketball and baseball.

Lee's greatest sport was fox hunting. He kept his hounds until he was disabled and could no longer go hunting. Lee's father died before he was born and because of that it was said that he (Lee) could cure the children's disease called thrush by blowing in their mouth. People from all around brought their children to him".

One of Lee's daughter-in-laws, Anna Lee (Potts) Kirk, states, "His (Lee's) father died before he was born. Country myth was that he could cure the small children's illness called thrush. Mothers from all over the community would bring their babies to him to be cured. He would take them from the mother, talk with them and get their confidence built up, hold and play with them until they laughed and Lee would blow into their mouth. It must have worked because I can't remember a complaint or a second time around for a child. Lee was a very loving and gentle man but was strict when he needed to be.

His biggest hobby was fox hunting. He always had a kennel of black and tan walker dogs which he named and could tell their barks apart any time they were within hearing distance. Just before dark you would see Lee get his horn off the wall, head for the barn for a riding mare, open the gate for the dogs and off to the woods to meet his buddies and the chase would soon be on. In Lee's later years, some of his sons and a son-in-law also discovered the excitement of fox hunting and would take Lee in their pickups and stay until the dogs gave up chasing or were too tired to run any longer."

Lee Roy Kirk died on October 26, 1954, from colon cancer. Julia (Robbins) Kirk died on August 19, 1982. They are buried together in the Bethel Cemetery in New Albany, Union County, Mississippi. Pictures of their headstone and a copy of their obituaries are included on the following pages.

LEE ROY and JULIA E. (ROBBINS) KIRK

Taken from a page in the cookbook and mailed to us by Odee Dowdy:

"Our grandmother, Julia Robbins Kirk, served this cake to her husband, Lee Roy Kirk, and their 12 children when times were hard and almost everyone raised their own molasses. She never used a recipe or measured her ingredients. Since her late son, Kennith, liked it so much, his wife, Jean, has duplicated it. Her family always enjoyed it served warm at the evening meal."

MOTHER KIRK'S FRESH APPLE AND MOLASSES CAKE

Cake

4 eggs
1 cup sorghum molasses
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup Crisco shortening
1/2 cup Crisco oil
1 cup buttermilk
1-1/2 t. soda
2-3/4 cups self-rising flour

Filling

4 large tart apples
1-1/2 cups sugar
water to cover apples

Cake:

Beat eggs and sugar well. Add shortening and oil and mix well. Add soda to buttermilk in small bowl and mix well. Add to egg mixture and beat well. Add flour and mix until thoroughly blended. Bake in 3 nine inch well-greased layer pans at 400 degrees. Test for doneness after 25 minutes. Cool when done.

Filling:

Peal apples and slice. Cover with water and cook until tender. Drain water from apples. Mash or mix apples until smooth. Add sugar and mix well. This should make enough filling for a thick layer between layers, top and sides of cake.

Ethel Irene Kirk

Ethel Irene Kirk was the first daughter and second child of Julia (Robbins) and Lee Roy Kirk, a granddaughter of William and Amanda (Hudson) Kirk and a great-granddaughter of Henry and Harriet Kirk.

She was born on September 26, 1910, which was too late to be included on the census of 1910 for Pontotoc County, Mississippi which is where her parents were listed. Listed along with her father, Lee R age 22, her mother, Julia age 23, and an older brother, Buford age 1 year and three months.

According to the census for the year 1920 there had been a big addition to the family. The family included L. R. age 33, Julia age 33, Buford R age 10, Ethel age 9, Earl age 7, Etoil (Etoye) age 5, Carl age 3, Flodell age 2.

Children who were born after the latest census of 1920 were Loin, Arthur, O'Dee, Kennith, Kennel and Henry Lloyd. There was a total of twelve brothers and sisters in the family with lots of love, which is what counts.

On November 20, 1927, Ethel married Henry Clarence Robbins. Henry Clarence Robbins was born on January 6, 1902. He went by his middle name, Clarence. Ethel and Clarence grew up in the Pinedale community, attending the same school and church. Their families before them grew up there.

Ethel and Clarence had no children.

Ethel was a housewife and a member of the Bethel Baptist Church in Union County, Mississippi where she played the piano for several years. At one time she belonged to the Pinedale Homemakers Club. Ethel enjoyed making quilts, crocheting and working with her flowers.

A tribute to Clarence and Ethel (Kirk) Robbins appeared in the "New Albany Gazette" on Friday, May 6, 1994, and was titled Clarence and Ethel Robbins at Etta known for "living right" by Fleeta Sneed and Kay Graham. A copy of this article is on the following pages.

A picture of Ethel and Clarence on their 50th wedding anniversary is included in this chapter. Ethel and Clarence were married 68 years before her death on December 14, 1995. Ethel Irene (Kirk) Robbins was buried in the Bethel Cemetery in Union County, Mississippi. A picture of her headstone and a copy of her obituary is on the following pages.

Clarence and Ethel Robbins at Etta known for 'living right'

By Fleeta Sneed and Kay Graham

Clarence Robbins and his wife, Ethel Kirk Robbins may not have been around the world, but their life together at Etta is better than travel, or that is the way they see it. "Did you kiss her on the first date?" his niece, Kay Richardson Graham asked. "I'll say-e-e-e," was the old gentleman's response. "Never thought about anything like that."

Henry Clarence Robbins was born Jan. 6, 1902; his wife, Ethel Irene Kirk Robbins was born Sept. 26, 1910. They grew up in the Pinedale community, attending the same school and church. Their families before them grew up there.

> They grew up in the Pinedale community, attending the same school and church.

Their first school days were at Bethel, a two - room building where the new cemetery is located today. The school was later moved a short distance up the road to Pinedale.

That was before every family had motorized four - wheeled passenger vehicles, and electricity to shut out the darkness at night. But life was simple back then and the heart found a way for true love.

On their first date Robbins walked to see the woman he would someday marry. But it was not the last time he would make his way along little wagon-trail-roads to the home owned by Mrs. Robbins parents, the late Lee and Julia Kirk. Robbins parents were the late Frank and Betty Poole Robbins.

Nevertheless, it was a year before the gentleman mustered up the nerve to ask for her hand in marriage, and that was while he was walking her home from prayer meeting one Sunday night. Bro. Jake Grubbs married the couple on Nov. 20, 1927.

Their first home was owned by Hubert Robbins, and in 1928 the couple homesteaded the land where they are still living today. They bought the land from his parents through the Federal Loan Bank, and when the depression hit they paid half-payments of $49.16 yearly.

The late Jeff Garrett built the house they live in today. He is the father of the late Jessie Garrett, who was the father of J.P. Garrett of Pinedale. The house was just a hull in the beginning, but they sealed it out as they could.

Life was hard on the farm with two old mules to grow cotton, corn, and such. But they had chickens and hogs, and raised all they could eat.

"Mr. Kirk gave Ethel $25 when we married and I bought two beds," Robbins said. "Then I went to town and bought the rest of the furniture."

Included in the merchandise bought at Hamilton Hardware in New Albany was a stove for $32.50, a dresser, 'dish safe,' two lamps, six chairs and a table, 'two smoothing irons,' and a number of other items, all for a mere $158.

"I wrote a check and paid for it and brought it home," he said.

In 1992, the Robbins had to dig a new well. It cost $2,568, quite a bit more than the $163 they paid for the first one in 1928.

Just to show how the couple prospered, Robbins sold a milk cow to buy their first car. "It was a Model - T Ford and I swapped a milk cow for a car," he said. That was during the Big Depression.

And all the time "Mr. Clarence," as he is lovingly referred to in the community, was growing crops and "Miss Ethel" was growing vegetables and canning them in an ole-time pressure cooker, and quilting.

Mrs. Robbins has made many quilts over the years. "She has quilts in Memphis, Texas, Jackson, Tupelo," and numerous friends whose homes burned over the years have one of her gift creations gracing their home.

The Robbins are known for "living right." Folks in the community say it's not unusual to go for a visit and hear the sound of "Amazing Grace" or "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" sifting out through the windows and doors.

Mrs. Graham said both gave their hearts and lives to Jesus at an early age. He became song director and she was pianist at Bethel church. He said, "If you have been a Christian for very long, you have been on the mountain top and experienced the valleys."

Robbins doesn't know the taste of whiskey and has never smoked, he said. In 1967 he started recording the death of people buried at Bethel.

Their likes and dislikes

Robbins favorite part of the Bible is "All of it." His favorite music is gospel.

His favorite president is President Franklin D. Roosevelt. "I believe he pulled us out of the depression."

What does he see wrong with the government today? "It's not worth a flip. They all draw big salaries when they need to be at home." He said, "We are slowly but surely drifting into communism."

Their wish for mankind is to "live right, go to church, read the Bible and apply it to their lives."

Their favorite Bible verse is John 3:16. Her favorite song is "In the Sweet By and By." His is "Amazing Grace."

Family

Out of the five girls and four boys born to his parents, only four are living. Model Jarrett lives at Ashland; Bryon Robbins at Pinedale and Clay Robbins at Hurricane.

Out of eight boys and four girls in Mrs. Robbins family, only four are living today. O.D. Dowdy lives at Shady Grove; Etoy Jamison at New Albany, and Flodell Russell at Tupelo.

Editor's note: Fleeta Sneed is staff writer for the Gazette. Kay Graham is a great-neice of the Robbins couple and lives in the Hurricane community.

O'Dee Kirk

O'Dee Kirk was the seventh child of Lee Roy and Julia (Robbins) Kirk, a granddaughter of William B. and Amanda (Hudson) Kirk, and a great-granddaughter of Henry and Harriet Kirk. O'Dee was born on March 13, 1924, in Etta, Union County, Mississippi.

O'Dee attended Pinedale High School in Union County. On August 7, 1943, O'Dee Kirk married William Ralph Dowdy. Ralph Dowdy was born on July 11, 1925 just down the road from where the reside. They have lived in the same house Ralph grew up in all of their married life. It is a lovely home located in the country.

O'Dee started working outside of the home in 1950 for Irvin B. Schwabe Company in New Albany. She retired in 1986. She is a member of the Martin Baptist Church in New Albany. Her hobbies are flowers, sewing and making quilts.

Ralph was a farmer and in 1970 he also became a school bus driver. He retired from driving the schsool bus in December, 1991. A tribute to Ralph appeared in the New Albany Gazette on Friday, May 1, 1992, entitled Mr. Ralph and the yellow school bus" by Fleeta Sneed. A copy is included in this chapter.

During our research trip to Mississippi in May 1996, we visited in the home of O'Dee and Ralph at which time she showed us some of her beautiful quilts and let us look at some of their family pictures. They both graciously invited us into their home and it was as if we had known each other for years. The more people we meet in the Kirk family, the happier we are to be Kirks.

Thank you, O'Dee and Ralph for your hospitality and your assistance. Without the help of O'Dee (Kirk) Dowdy, there would be very little information on the children of Lee and Julia Kirk's branch of the family tree. She has graciously provided us with information which it has been impossible for us to obtain elsewhere. Thank you very much for your time and assistance, O'Dee. You have made it possible for us to carry on with our research and helped to preserve our family history for years to come.

Only child of O'Dee (Kirk) and William Ralph Dowdy

Mr. Ralph and the yellow school bus

By Fleeta Sneed
Staff writer

For some, the yellow school bus is the signal for another day - a time to be "up and at 'em."

It's like the sun coming up and going down.

Its coming and going is as punctual as the pendulem in a grandfather clock swinging back and forth - back and forth.

People set their watch by it; it keeps their world in balance.

It's predictable.

For five days a week - nine months out of the year a school bus keeps the driver, the student and the people along the route in touch with time.

It makes no difference if the sun is shining or rain is pouring down, the bus is on the road. It's the bus driver's job to pick up a student within a few minutes of the time he did the morning before. With that same precision he drops him, or her, off in the afternoon.

Ralph Dowdy knows the importance of being on time, because as a child he rode a bus through the back roads of Lone Star Community, and in 1970 began driving one, transporting children to Ingomar school. He retired at the end of December, 1991.

His schedule allowed two minutes, one way or the other, to pick them up. "Most of the time I was within a minute or a minute-and-a-half of the time," he said.

One day driving the bus was sufficient for substitute, Norris Ashley. "He came to me when the day was over and said, 'That's enough for me Mr. Ralph; that's enough,'" Dowdy said.

Dowdy grew up in the Lone Star community. He was born less than a mile from where he lives today. His parents moved into the house when he was about four months old.

It's the only home Dowdy remembers.

"They were building this house and the store at the same time," he said pointing to the old Dowdy's Store building across the road. Dowdy's Store, now D & L Grocery, is just this side of the Pontotoc and Union County line in Union County.

His father, Steve Dowdy, owned the land and worked the 320 acres surrounding the buildings to feed and clothe his and his wife, Lola Robbins Dowdy's 13 children. Ralph Dowdy was the thirteenth.

Dowdy and his wife, O. D. Kirk Dowdy returned after saying their wedding vows and where they raised their only child, Sammy.

So, driving the school bus over the route he had ridden as a boy was as natural as getting up in the morning. "We've had some good times and some bad," he said reflecting back on the years.

"When you haul an average of 50 students over a period of 20 years, it adds up to a lot of kids."

He never forgets a student, but Miles Hall is one he remembers well. Miles' family came to the Shady Grove community from Illinois and moved into a house just up the road, he said.

The young boy had heard of so-called racial discrimination in the south from his peers up north. So when he was old enough to begin

"I told him if he made it in the big league, he had to give me his first paycheck," Dowdy said with a big wide grin.

Miles didn't make it in the big league, but he still remembers Dowdy with a big grin and a wave hello when he sees him.

Students who rode Dowdy's bus years ago loved his money tricks. "I've probably given away $200 to $300 pretending to pull money out of the kids ears.

"I'd reach up with the money in my hand and pretend to pull it out from behind their ear. "At one time a nickle or dime was enough, but now they want a quarter," Dowdy said with a big grin.

One thing the students enjoyed most was a paper fight at the end of school. On the last day, Dowdy allowed them to make paper balls out of what was left in their notebooks. "They'd throw it everywhere," he said.

But Dowdy had rules that one might call strict. He didn't allow one child to tell another one to "Shut up."

Another is, "I've told them I'm no better than anybody, but I've taught them to respect me and call me Mr. Ralph," he said. "I didn't allow them to 'Yes' and 'Naw' either.

"These little fellows," Dowdy said with tenderness showing in his eyes, "I love them to death, and believe it or not when I see some of the ones that I haven't seen in a long time, they'll hollar across the street, "Hey Mr. Ralph."

"But what I'm thankful for is in the 20 years I haven't hurt anybody," he concluded.

Driving the bus is a part of Dowdy's life that will never be forgotten, but he's going on to new things. Since he retired in December, you can see him almost any day, or night with his dogs loaded up headed for a big hunt.

school, he decided he just wouldn't go.

His mother would lead him with a strong hand to the bus every morning and each time when she let go, Miles would run. "He did that two or three mornings," Dowdy said, "and finally I asked the boy's mother, 'Linda, do you want that kid to go to school?' She said, 'Yes, sir, Mr. Ralph, I sure do.'"

It was summer and school had just started and Miles rejection of school continued for some time.

Cotton had matured and one morning when the distraught mother let go, Miles ran again. "Well, he was running right up through the field and I tore out after him.

"The cotton was this high," Dowdy said, measuring on his leg. "And when he saw I was going to catch him, he laid down in the field and started beating the dust with his fists.

"I picked him up and carried him to the bus and got on with him. I had to hold him with one hand and drive with the other," he said.

But, the story doesn't end there. When they got off the bus at school, Miles locked his arms around a front pillar of the school.

John Weeden, principal of Ingomar came to Dowdy's rescue. After prying Miles loose, the men carried him to the cafeteria for food. Dowdy said nothing they did helped; he was still upset.

Finally, after recovering from the boy's hard kick to Weeden's chin, he applied three licks with the school's paddle to Miles behind, convincing him to stay in school.

"After that, he was one of the best boys I hauled," Dowdy said.

Miles grew up to become one of Ingomar's best basketball players and had the potential to become a good baseball player.

Legislature honors Dowdy, Lambert

Shannon Dowdy of Ingomar and Norma Lambert of Booneville representing Northeast Mississippi Community College were among 82 outstanding students and faculty members from Mississippi colleges and universities honored by the State Legislature Feb. 18 at the fifth annual HEADWAE Program.

Higher Education Appreciation Day — working for Academic Excellence was initiated in 1988 to honor individual academic achievement and the overall contribution by the state's public and private institutions of higher learning.

The honorees, representing 41 institutions throughout the state, were selected by their institutions based on scholastic performance, experience, teaching record and other factors. The HEADWAE program is sponsored by the Mississippi Legislature and supported by the state's corporate community.

Honorees also visited the State Capitol where they were introduced to the State Senate and to the House of Representatives.

Dowdy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Dowdy, is a sophomore pre-nursing major at Northeast. After she receives a bachelor's degree in nursing, she hopes to enroll in medical school. At Northeast she has maintained a 4.0 (A) grade point average.

In high school she was selected valedictorian, star-student, most intellectual, and most likely to succeed. She served as president of the Beta Club, president of the Science Club, and vice-president of the senior class. She was elected "best personality," "nicest to be with," and "best all around" in "Who's Who" elections. She also received the ACT scholarship and the valedictorian scholarship given by Northeast. At Northeast she has served as a student tutor in English, science, sociology, and mathematics. She also received an award for an essay she submitted to Northeast's writing competition. Dowdy is a member of the Society of Student Scientists, and is the current president of Iota Zeta, Northeast's chapter of Phi Theta Kappa honor fraternity. She is currently employed as a nursing assistant at Baptist Memorial Hospital-Union County.

Norma Lambert of Booneville, an instructor in NEMCC's Division of Languages for seven years, has taught freshman composition, English and American Literature, honors English and developmental English. She also taught both remedial and accelerated English classes and speech at the high school level.

Dowdy wins $3,400 UM Scholar Award

Shannon Dowdy

Dowdy, 19, is the daughter of Sammy and Linda Dowdy of New Albany. A sophomore pre-nursing major at Northeast Community College, she is president of the Northeast chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, and the recipient of Phi Theta Kappa's "Honor of the Golden Key" award. The USM Scholar Award is the most prestigious award given to a community or junior college student. The field of applicants, which was on an invitation-only basis, was narrowed to 10, and the 10 were invited to the Hattiesburg campus for a personal interview Feb. 28.

To be selected as one of the 10, students had to have a 3.5 or better grade-point average, 40 or more community or junior college hours, no attendance at USM or any other four-year college or university, and significant involvement in campus and community activities.

Shannon Dowdy

Loin attended Pinedale School in Union County and later spent nine months stateside in the U. S. Army during World War II. He received a medical discharge in June of 1943.

On October 16, 1943, Loin Kirk married Anna Lee Potts in Union County, Mississippi. Anna Lee Potts was born on August 3, 1924.

Both Loin and Anna Lee were accomplished singers. Loin was choir director in several Union and Pontotoc County churches, taught singing schools in Union, Pontotoc, Lafayette, Tippah and Marshall Counties. He also served two terms as president of the Union County Gospel Singing Convention. A tribute to Loin and Anna Lee appeared in the Gazette entitled Singing the old-time way" by Maxine Mroz. A copy of this article is included in this chapter.

Loin enjoyed most sports, especially baseball and basketball. Even though he was unable to participate, Loin encouraged his children and grandchildren to play.

Loin drove the school bus for Union County school system for twenty years. He and Anna Lee had two children.

Loin died on October 7, 1992 and is buried at Vista Memorial Park cemetery lot 180, block 1. A copy of his obituary and a picture of his headstone are on the following pages.

Singing the old-time way

By Maxine Mroz
Family Living editor

Can anyone say just how long the Union County Singing Convention has met to celebrate and enjoy gospel music? Attempts to date the beginnings have been futile. Although it can definitely be traced back only to the 1930s, its roots probably extend even further back.

Singing conventions were a product of an age that had to produce its own amusements, before the advent of records, radios, movies, and much later, television.

Such conventions began in the church houses which were the center of social life in myried small communities dotting the rural South. Every church of necessity had a singing leader, some lay person skilled in singing, and these singers, along with preachers, were the core of the conventions.

But lay people of all ages, from barefoot pre-adolescent boys in overalls (Elvis Presley first began his singing career in church) to their parents and grey-haired grandparents, attended the events, which often ended on Sunday with dinner on the grounds.

Most counties had a formal Singing Convention organization, with a president, vice-president and secretary elected annually. Minutes of the meetings were sent in to the state, much as church minutes are today. Two sessions were held in the county each year, one in the spring and the second in the fall. But the singing conventions fell on hard times and for a time were discontinued entirely. Now only one session a year is held.

Still the singers come, carrying on a tradition whose beginnings their grandparents probably knew, but which have been forgotten now. This year's session will be at West Tallahatchie Baptist Church on Saturday and Sunday, September 19 and 20. The Saturday night session begins at 6:30 p.m. and runs two to two and a half hours. The Sunday session starts at 10 a.m. and lasts to 3 or 3:30.

Current officers of the Union County Singing Convention are Lavern Browning, president; Loyt Wallace, vice-president; and Mrs. Loin (Anna Lee) Kirk, secretary.

Lavern Browning, this year's president, has been active in the Convention for about the last five years. After having been living away from Union County, he returned in 1981 and gradually resumed his childhood ties with singing.

"When I grew up I attended singing schools pretty regularly. Loin Kirk taught some of them that I attended back in the 50s. He was music director at the Shady Grove Church where I grew up, and I started singing there. We'd have an all-day singing at Homecoming each year the first Sunday in May."

People who like to sing or who love to hear good singing continue to attend the conventions, but the numbers are diminishing. "As old-timers die and without young people coming in to replace them, singing conventions are dying out," one singer said. "But those of us who love it continue to go."

Singing conventions were a product of an age that had to produce its own amusements, before the advent of records, radios, movies, and much later, television.

Regulars know each other, and they can usually predict ahead of time who will be present each year. At this weekend's singing will be people who like to sing from as far south of here as Grendada and Houston, as far east as Tishomingo County and from West Alabama, Mrs. Loin Kirk said.

"Everybody's welcome, but just not everybody is interested in coming," she said.

Loin and Anna Lee Kirk of West Ingomar are two Union Countians who have been a part of the Convention since the early 40s. Actually, Anna says, she began going to singing school to be around Loin, who was also attending, and not because she wanted to learn to sing. And after their romance blossomed and they were married, she continued to go to singings to be with him.

"But it grows on you," she says.

When the couple were married in 1943, they used their singing talent as part of a quartet, the Kirk Quartette, whose other members were Buford Kirk and A. K. Faust, with Darlos Hudson playing the piano.

That was the first of several quartettes in which they sang. Later it was the Jubilee Quartet, with Loin and Anna Lee, A. J. Burchfield and Lem Robertson.

Loin was one of 12 children of the late Lee and Julia Kirk of the Pinedale-Etta area. The Kirks were nearly all singers, Loin says, recalling one time at Cornersville when he and three of his brothers were singing. "They asked all the Kirks in the room to stand up and about 2/3 of the house stood up," he chuckles.

Loin taught singing schools for about 45 years, beginning before he and Anna Lee married. "I studied from A. J. Burchfield, A. K. Faust, Doyle Turner and Austin Williams," he said. He had training at the Vaughn Normal School in Lawrenceburg and Nashville, Tenn. Schools such as it teach directing, ear training and voice, he said.

"Back then, churches would come and ask me to teach. We'd have two weeks. Each student would learn to direct a song. At the end of the two weeks, we'd give a test and give a prize to the one that made the highest grade.

"I remember Larry Kirk, Kennith's boy, would often win the prize."

Anna Lee says the only two things a person must know to sing is time and tonality (the sound of the note), and Loin adds, "If it weren't for the notes up there on the page, it would be like singing out of a Sears Roebuck catalogue."

Many churches today play down the role of congregational singing while having special music sung, "But I always remember what Bro. Jake Grubbs said at Bethel one time. He said singing does for a preacher what a section harrow does for a planter — gets it in shape," Loin says.

He and Anna Lee no longer go to singings as they once did, although they did attend the Mississippi State Singing Convention at Woods Junior College the third weekend in August. Loin has not been well in the past few years. Phlebitis which he contracted while he was in service during World War II led to the loss of a leg in 1986. "That didn't keep him down," Anna Lee says. But surgery for colon cancer with its resultant 30 cobalt treatments, (it is now in remission), a malignant tumor which caused him to lose the vision in his left eye three years ago, and a tumor on his lung have kept him fighting for his health.

"But you look around and see someone who's in worse shape than you are," he says philosophically.

"Plus he's got a good nurse," laughs Anna Lee.

Loin says he doesn't sing much anymore, and his wife adds that his not being able to read the notes as quickly as he once did due to his vision is the reason for that. But she sits down at the piano in their living room, and they sing a favorite song, "God is So Good to Me," together, their voices blending effortlessly from years of practice.

There is regret in their voices that people no longer come out for singing conventions as they once did. "In the old days eight or 10 churches would call for the convention (ask to have it at their church)," Loin said. "Now you have to beg them to have it there."

In the old days, too, strict parliamentary procedure was used to govern the meetings. "Each church was allowed seven delegates, and we'd vote on officers and where to have it the next year." The president presided, traditionally leading in the first song and then calling on singers to lead the songs in turn.

"You had to know your singers. Some of them would lead fast and some slow, and you had to mix them up so it wouldn't drag," Anna Lee said.

Anna Lee is the only woman ever to serve as president of the Union County Singing Convention. "The singers are just like a club," she explained. "You get to feel real close. When anyone dies, we all chip in for flowers. And its like a family reunion when we all get together."

The couple share memories, now, of singers gone on to a bigger, better singing convention, singers such as Miss Minnie Jarvis. "Long after she got too feeble to stand alone, she'd stand and sing with a person on each side to help hold her up." Or they remember Mrs. Pearl Pannell, mother of Rev. Wallace Pannell, who never missed a

Memories such as these will be with them Saturday night and Sunday as yet another Convention is convened at West Tallahatchie Baptist Church by President Lavern Browning. As the singers come up one by one to lead the crowd in songs that swell and reach the roof, there well may be another crowd looking on from above and joining in the singing soundlessly.

Who knows? "But if it is possible, I know some that would be there," Loin says.

Additional Information:

KENNELL "BUDGIE" KIRK

Kennell Kirk was the eleventh child of Lee Roy and Julia (Robbins) Kirk, a grandson of William B. and Amanda (Hudson) Kirk, and a great-grandson of Henry and Harriet Kirk. He was born October 1, 1928 in Union County, Mississippi

Kennell attended school and played basketball at Pinedale School in Union County.

On October 19, 1946 in Randolph, Mississippi, Kennell Kirk married Maybelline Montgomery of Union County. Maybelline was born on August 8, 1927.

Kennell and Maybelline farmed in Union County until 1953, then they moved to Memphis, Tennessee. Kennell worked for Flexonics in Memphis until Flexonics moved to California. Flexonics wanted him to transfer but he stayed in Memphis. Memphis was closer to where his heart was. His heart was still on that farm in Union County, Mississippi.

After Flexonics moved, Kennell moved from job to job for a short time until he started working for Walker Machine Products. He worked at Walker Machine until 1978 when his health kept him from working.

On October 1, 1978, on his 50th birthday, Kennell Kirk was told that he had lung cancer. On April 19, 1979 at Methodist Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee, Kennell died. He was buried on April 21st in the cemetery at Bethel Baptist Church in Union County, just down the road from that farm where he always wanted to be. A copy of his obituary is on the following pages along with a picture of his headstone.
